Stove News

“One Stop Shopping with Style “

“Cooking with firewood offers several benefits: it provides a distinct, smoky flavor that enhances the taste of food, it's often more cost-effective in rural areas, and it doesn't rely on electricity or gas infrastructure, making it ideal for off-grid cooking.”

Lugo Cookstove

Perfect for heating and cooking, the Lugo cookstove is designed with home comfort in mind. Made in the Czech Republic with the finest materials, this fireplace is a sleek addition to every home. Features include a big stainless steel oven that reaches 500°F, an oven thermometer, a drip tray, a positioning grill, and the ability to top or rear vent. The side cladding is available in gray steel, a variety of tile colors, natural stone, and sandstone. Lugo cookstove in sandstone shown.

It's Time for Field & Supply

Known as a Modern Makers Market, Field & Supply is on again this Spring. The show will take place on May 30th through June 1, 2025 at the Hutton Brickyards in Kingston, N.Y. Gather your family and friends and take a ride to see the show. Enjoy outdoor activities, eat, drink, and shop for locally made products at this great outdoor event. For more info, visit: fieldandsupply.com.

Omega Chef Cook Stove

Another kitchen wonder, the Omega Chef from Denmark is a kitchen gem. With a baking oven on top and fire box below, this super contemporary stove is perfect for every chef. The stove has a door made entirely of black glass which gives it a sleek look. Standard features include a self-closing door and a fresh air intake option. All models are available in black steel side cladding. Omega Chef shown above.

Shaker Outdoor grill

Everything outdoors is happening this Spring. The Shaker grill is here for the season. A beautiful product made of cor-ten steel that takes on a natural patina as it weathers when exposed to the elements. The grill comes with a stainless-steel grill rack, a protective screen and a stove pipe with cap. If you want to see one in person, come and visit us here at our showroom located at 40 Westchester Avenue in Pound Ridge, NY. In stock and ready to ship!

Takk Fire Poker

The Takk Fire Poker from Netherland is a clever tool. Designed to look like a tree branch, but durable enough to poke a blazing fire. Made of steel with a leather wrapped handle for a cool touch. See our website wittus.com for more details.
